B. ROSENBERG is our Agent to contract for advertisements for the Republican, in the city of Louisville, Ky.

Cuba.—The prospects of Cuban independence seem rather gloomy at late. We have never taken much interest either in the success or failure of the patriots, in the fight going on, believing from the first that the whole question depended upon the course the United States might pursue; & that has been so vacillating as to occasion continual doubt. The United States government has given about encouragement enough to the patriots to get their necks into the halter, but not help enough to get them out. About the only hope for Cuban independence now is, the breaking out of a new revolution in Spain, which at the latest dates seemed imminent.

Chancery Court.—The present term of our Chancery Court has been in session from Monday morning to Thursday evening, Chancellor D. B. McCraw, presiding. The business having been kept so nearly up heretofore, there does not appear to have been a great deal on hand, and that has been promptly disposed of.

Chancellor McCraw is an able, efficient and excellent judicial officer, who disposes of all his official business in a manner alike just and impartial, and highly satisfactory to the public and all parties concerned.

Goods at Cost.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Capt. C. Stipes, who is now proposing to sell his entire Stock of Goods at cost. Now is the time to get good bargains. Call upon him and examine his stock and learn his prices.

Congress, our State Legislature, the re-reconstructed one of Georgia, and several others are now in full blast, after the close of the Christmas recess.

The time was when the people looked forward with pleasing anticipations to the meetings of Congress and the State Legislature, in hope of the enactment of measures of relief and encouragement to all the various pursuits and industries; but now their meetings are regarded with dread and apprehension; and any indications of an early adjournment are hailed with delight.

In these latter days the people are haunted with visions of burdensome taxation, without representation, repressive party legislation, and official corruption in high and low places.

They are having a lively time in Georgia: the layout and fire-arms being chiefly relied on to promote party men, and carry out party measures; but these instrumentalities have signally failed this far, because the Cronwells had not Cronwells courage.

We will try to keep our readers posted as to what is actually done in those bodies, affecting public interest, and which of course must be abided by for the present.

New Business in Jacksonville.—It will be seen by reference to their advertisement, that Messrs. Seymour & Turner have opened a Merchant Tailoring establishment in this place, in rear of Montgomery Bros. Grocery Store, on the west side of the public square.

Mr. Turner is well known to be one of the best workmen in the Southern States, doing his work promptly, neatly, substantially, and in the latest fashions. Mr. Seymour is a competent, reliable and experienced man. The establishment will be a great convenience and advantage to our place; and those who patronize it, which we hope may be many, will find it more to their interest, than the purchase of indifferently made up clothing from the North.

M. E. THORNTON, Esq., an active, prompt and energetic Attorney, of Edgewood, Cleburne County, has been in our town during the present term of the Chancery Court.

Col. W. B. Martin and J. T. Bradford Esq., long and well known Attorneys, formerly of this place, but now of Gadsden, were also in attendance.

Educational.—The next session of the Middleton Male and Female Academy, as will be seen by reference to advertisement in this paper, will commence on the 1st of February, 1870, under the continued superintendence of Rev. L. Law, who has rendered himself justly popular as a teacher, by his competent, diligent and faithful discharge of duty, and unexceptionable deportment as a Christian gentleman.

The school is located in a healthy and desirable neighborhood, and ample arrangements made for the accommodation of boarders, at the very moderate rates of $2 to $10 per month.

Selma as a Cotton Market.

We think, from noticing the prices of cotton at various points, and other information of a reliable character, that it would be the interest of planters in this section to send their cotton to Selma. Cotton has been and still is relatively higher in Selma than New York, or any of the Southern markets. While middling cotton has been selling recently in Selma at 23 $\frac{1}{2}$ , it was only 23 $\frac{1}{2}$  in Mobile and 23 $\frac{1}{2}$  in New York. While encouraging the nearest and best cotton market in their own State or the South, they could at the same time make it the least and most convenient one for Groceries, Hardware, &c.

We merely wish to give the figures, and get them to examine for themselves and think on the subject, feeling assured that the instincts of self-interest will do the rest.

The Rural Carolinian.

Colonel D. Wyatt Aiken, one of the leading planters of this State, has become associated with Messrs. Walker, Evans and Cogswell as joint proprietor of this valuable agricultural monthly. In his notice announcing the connection, Colonel Aiken says: "In this uniting myself with the enterprising firm of Messrs. Walker, Evans and Cogswell, more than a single motive will of course be laid at my door; but chief amongst the inducements is the earnest desire to lend a helping hand to develop and polish the developments of the agricultural interests of our beloved South. Whatever of agricultural advantages I may have gained after a practical plantation experience of near twenty years, shall be given to THE RURAL for the benefit of others."

Messrs. Walker, Evans and Cogswell state that Colonel Aiken "will devote his time to travelling through the Southern States gathering practical information from all sections for the benefit of our readers, eliciting correspondents, establishing agencies and extending our subscription list."

The January number of The Rural Carolinian has intrinsic merit rarely equalled, and must secure a favorable consideration for the new firm. Among the contents we especially notice the articles on Fish Culture, Liebig and Agricultural Chemistry, Facts and Figures for Farmers, Agriculture of Russia, The Sea Island Cotton Question, and The Culture of the Olive—all of which are first-class articles of practical interest, and evidently written by men thoroughly conversant with the subjects of which they treat. The illustrations of this number are numerous and handsome, and in appearance, as well as in contents, the January number of The Rural Carolinian can fairly challenge comparison with any other agricultural magazine, North or South.

The PROPRIETORS OF THE NEW CENTURY MAGAZINE have the pleasure to announce that in the February number will be given the opening of a new Southern Romance, entitled "The Storm and the Sunset," by Colonel HENRY CLEVELAND, the talented author. We hardly need tell you that Colonel CLEVELAND is to the public what he is known so well. In 1859 he gave up a large law practice to become political editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist, and was a delegate to the great Democratic Convention of that year. He only left that paper when the South called her sons to the field, and save when a prisoner he was a soldier from the first month of the war to the last, mostly in field service. At the close of the war he retired to his fine plantation on the Georgia Rail Road, and in 1866 published a biography of Vice President SEYMOUR, which had a large sale. Mr. CLEVELAND was one of the editors of Appleton's Journal in the first half year of its existence.

The NEW CENTURY, now so well established and so popular, has on its list the best writers in the Union, and at $3.50 a year, or 35 cents a copy, is cheaper than Hunter's or the American Monthly. It is highly toned, even in advertisements, and does not beg for patronage, but deserves it. Long live the "City between the Rivers," its Century, Charleston (S. C.) Courier, Dec. 27, 1869.

Late Decision of the State Supreme Court.

We don't see why the Judges of the Supreme Court should have given the newspapers so much trouble, and wasted so much ink and paper in the cases of Garson and Shields, and B. S. Bibb and W. C. Bibb (see page). Why not have briefly said in so many distinct words without more talk, that all Courts during the confederacy were illegal, and that these cases were ruled by this proposition. Why so maliciously crucify logic and common sense; ignore fixed facts, and summon chaos in such awful confusion of ideas and grammar. It will appear that Judges Pock and Peters in order to defend their judgment in Coleman vs. Clismon, against the ruthless assaults of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Trotter vs. Smith and Harty, (opinion pronounced by Chief Justice Chase) have made a kind of wild sort of charges from their Chambers in our radicalized Capital in token of ultra and mortal defiance of the said Chase. The broad face of these proceedings, must strike the Public with irresistible humor when we come to a certain that the Court, after all its lengthy disputation in the very face of its own reasoning, has granted a "New Trial" in a case which it declares has never had any legal existence whatever in any legal Court.

In the face of all this Judicial folly, we can only say that if the Law could be personified in Alabama, it ought deliberately to make its will and die cutting off as ungrateful sons Pock and Peters with a power six pence.—Montgomery Advertiser.

On Friday, at the circus, a riot occurred between the negroes and whites at Dardanelles, Ark. About 60 negroes, led by several ringleaders, attacked the citizens of that place, and were repulsed. Subsequently, the negroes captured a young white man and butchered him in cold blood.

The latest information is brought by the steamer Gudon. When she passed, the negroes were rallying in large numbers below the town, and it was expected that another attack would be made.

A bloody revolution is looked for in Spain. Every dispatch that comes is expected to announce the beginning of very serious troubles.

Prim will, it is thought, declare himself Dictator, as he has the army at his back.

Jacksonville.

From the Gadsden Times.
While in Jacksonville Christmas week, the most attractive thing that we noticed was the Christmas tree given the children of the M. E. Sunday school. The church was tastefully decorated by the young ladies and gentlemen of the town for the occasion. The "tree" was composed of two trees, united by an illuminated transparent arch, on which was lettered: "On earth peace, good will to men." (a sentiment from which Grant is supposed to have drawn his celebrated hypocritical expression of "Let us have peace"). Behind the arch was a transparent star, so suspended by invisible threads as to be made to gradually ascend during the singing of the opening hymn. At the first notes of the organ which gave out rich music under the touch of one of the most amiable and lovely young ladies of the town, the star began to ascend and continued to rise until the close of the hymn, the whole combining to produce a most striking effect, elevating in character, and suggestive of that kingdom which is said sometimes to exist between earth and Heaven.

Gloria in Excelsis was next sung by the entire school, followed by a most beautiful "conversation" with song interspersed, in relation to the birth of our Blessed Savior, in which the little children were made to ask questions concerning it, answered by the venerable Superintendent in appropriate descriptive passages read from the Scriptures. Harrison next made a brief address, full of happy allusions, in excellent taste and pertinent to the occasion. After the address began the distribution of presents to the big and little ones. The remainder of the scene can be easily imagined—the happiness of the little ones—the surprise—the pleasurable excitement.

En Passant.—During the distribution of the presents the name of our old friend J. M. Reinfo was called several times, who, though not a "little one" showed no less gratification, as each successive package was handed over to him. From one of the boxes he received, a very lively mouse sprang out, causing no little flutter among the fair ones by whom he was "surrounded." Compliments which before we knew were showering upon him were soon exchanged for "Ugh! you brute." "Get away with you, naughty man!" He is hunting the fellow who put it on the tree, yet. Says he only want to thank him.

Every visitor from a distance was remembered and surprised with an appropriate present.

Truly hospitable, may the good old town long live and flourish, to guide and please its little ones, shake it sides over funny things, and still be mindful of weightier things.

Those of our friends who have not availed themselves of the benefits, offered by the Atlas Mutual Life Insurance Co., would do well to call on CAPT. REINFO, at once, he informs us that it is his intention to make his Headquarters in Montgomery in the future. He is the General Traveling agent for the State.

The Race Question in Mississippi.—The Press of Mississippi manifest an utter disgust at the result of their late experiment with the negroes and many of the papers advocate the formation of a white man's party. The Columbus Index expresses itself as follows:

"We have given the negro a fair trial. He has voted solidly against us and we hoist, from this day, the White man's Flag, and will never take it down so long as we have a voice in the government of the State.

"No more compromise; no more overtures of friendship from us. We have extended him the olive branch of peace, and he rejected it with scorn and contempt. Upon his own infernal kinky head fall the responsibility.

"White men, they mistrust, despise and laugh at us. Our dignity and self respect require that we should accept the issue and prepare for the consequences.

The radical idea of reconstruction is evidently borrowed from John Robinson's dreams. Those who have witnessed the performances of "the great American combination" (we mean John Robinson's) will remember how the down knockers over the young gentlemen in the gold lace and then cries out "poor fellow," and sets him up again and goes to washing him clean, as he says, with a dirty brush. Then he dusts him off with a blacking brush. Then he polishes him with a rake. Then he whitts him about and asks "Now, isn't he beautiful?" That's reconstruction over and over again Congress takes a State and knocks it down. Then it sets it up. Then it polishes it with negro-suffrage. Then it polishes it with legions. Then it dusts it with martial law. Then, finally, it goes radical, like Mississippi, it says "Now, isn't he beautiful?" The people are sick of this. There is no fun in it. It is all well enough as a circus trick, but it is too serious when applied to real life. Courier Journal.

On Wednesday last Samuel Whiteley, of Henderson county, Tenn., while laboring under a fit of insanity, threw his three children into a well, and then jumped in also. The children were drowned. Whiteley was rescued, but is not expected to survive his injuries.

DAVIS' PAIN KILLER has won for itself a reputation unsurpassed in the history of medical preparations. It is well known in the trading ports of India and China as in New York and Boston, and its continually increasing demand, where it has been longest known, is one of its strongest recommendations and best advertisements. It began to be favorably known in 1839, and has ever since been gradually growing into public favor, till, in thousands of families, it has come to be considered an article of such necessity that they are never without a supply of it to resort to in case of accident or sudden illness. It is not infrequently said of it: "we would not run the risk of being without four in the house without Davis' Pain Killer." It gives immediate relief in case of cold or flu, as well as in the sudden attack of Diarrhea, Dysentery, or other similar affections of the bowels and, being an entirely vegetable preparation, it is as safe as it is reliable. The promptness and certainty with which it acts in relieving all kinds of pain, makes it eminently worthy its name.—Pain Killer is a name easily understood, and not easily forgotten.

No medicine has been more successful in curing Fever and Ague. For sudden Cold it is almost a specific. Rheumatism and Neuralgic affections give away to it when all other remedies have failed. It is eminently a FAMILY MEDICINE, and by being kept ready for immediate resort in cases of accident or sudden attack of illness, has saved many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in that and doctor's bill.

It can be had at the Drug Stores in Jacksonville.

PAIN KILLER

A Cure for Diphtheria!

All interested, please read the following extract from a letter from Mrs. Ellen B. Jones, wife of Rev. Francis Mason, Tongue, Illinois:

"My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted one morning ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder of the throat as thick as a half-dollar. So many children have died around here, I was afraid to call a physician, and thought I would try your Pain Killer for a guide, with small doses inwardly. I did so, and found the gargle invariably cut off the vesicles, and he raised himself up, often covered with blood. He was taken on Sunday on Wednesday—Your Pain Killer cured this disease—Diphtheria, on some Throat—that is so alarmingly prevalent here and it has not been known to fall in any instance when used in time. This fact you should make known to the world. (It is used in this disease as a gargle and wash, as well as a tonic and stimulant.)"

In Illinois, where this disease prevailed for many months in its most malignant form, the use of your Pain Killer was invariably attended with the most favorable results, when it was used here the disease had made too much progress to preclude the use of so powerful a stimulant.

Sheriff's Sale.

Under and by virtue of a fi issued from the Circuit Court of Calhoun County, I will sell for cash, before the court house door of said county on Monday the 3rd day of January 1870, the following Town lots to wit: Lot known as the H. J. Lowman lot, and is further known as the north third of lot No. 3 surveyed for G. C. Whitley by John Lindsey lying south of the lot now occupied by John Crawford, containing one and two tenths acres, also a lot adjoining the west end of said lot on the south and west of the academy lot; said last lot being about 120 feet square and containing one fourth acre more or less. Said lots are known as Taylor and Hutchinson's Stage Stand in the town of Jacksonville, Ala., and have been levied on as the property of F. C. Taylor and W. O. Hutchinson, to satisfy an execution in my hands issued in favor of John Norris and against said F. C. Taylor and W. O. Hutchinson.

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—One hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been made on the lease of Samana.

The President will send a treaty to the Senate Monday, paying a million and a half for San Domingo to be annexed as territory not as a State.

FROM ENGLAND.

LONDON, Jan. 8.—A story has been extensively published on the Continent lately to the effect that President Grant will soon visit the Sovereigns of Europe, and that he will make the trans-Atlantic voyage accompanied by a fleet of iron-clads.

FROM SPAIN.

MADRID, Jan. 8.—All idea of Dictatorship is abandoned. The Ministers refuse to withdraw their resignations unless a definite policy is programmed.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The President will nominate William Strong, of Pennsylvania, as Judge Grier's successor. He will not withdraw Hoar's nomination.

The administration contemplates no action regarding Cuba.

Executive circles have information that Spanish regiments can march to any point on the island of Cuba.

Revenue nearly half a million.

The treaty for the annexation of San Domingo to the United States was negotiated by President Biaz and our commercial agent Berry, at San Domingo.

This treaty with the secret message of the President of the United States will be sent to the Senate on Monday.

Of the truth of this statement there is no doubt. The governing motive for the acquisition of San Domingo is its geographical position to this country as a means of national defense, as well as its general maritime advantages; and hence, as a preliminary case, the Samana treaty was effected and the jurisdiction of the United States established over that part of the territory of San Domingo.

Several Senators who are cognizant of the facts of the case, assert that the negotiation privately San Domingo is of as much importance to the United States as the island of Cuba, if not more and that the acquisition of the one will lead to more easy possession of the other.

It may be that the president of the United States, in his message recommending the ratification of the treaty, will briefly state his reasons for the negotiation. It is certain, however, that he has stated them to some of his most intimate political friends.

Although the text of the treaty cannot now be made public there is no doubt it contains the following propositions, viz: 1. The United States stipulate to pay the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars.

2d. This money to be the liquidation of all obligations of the republic of St. Domingo, including the redemption of the currency, which is represented to be of a comparatively small amount.

3. In case the obligations to be assumed by the United States shall exceed the before mentioned sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars, the public lands of St. Domingo are pledged as security for the excess.

4. Liquidation of obligations is entrusted to commissioners—one to be appointed by each of the contracting parties.

5. In consideration of the discharge of these obligations, St. Domingo cedes to the United States all forts, docks, custom houses and all other public buildings, arsenals, etc., and complete jurisdiction over the territory.

6. San Domingo to be ceded or acquired as territory and not as a State, and subject to the legislation of Congress, in the same manner as Territories of the United States.

7. The treaty to be valid to all intents and purposes when ratified by the Senate of the United States and confirmed by a vote of the majority of the citizens of St. Domingo.

NOON DISPATCH.

Washington, Jan. 11.—House Reconstruction committee reported a bill for the admission of Virginia, which was made the order for to-morrow. It contains Butler's preamble. A fundamental principle of the bill is that none voting now shall hereafter be excluded, and exacts the disqualification imposed by the Fourteenth Amendment. It legalizes the Senatorial election.

Paris, Jan. 11.—Rochefort's

Marsailles, newspaper attacks Prince Pierre Bonaparte. Two editors of Marsailles visited Prince Pierre Bonaparte to arrange a duel. During the interview Bonaparte becoming enraged, fired twice killing Victor Noir. The tragedy caused much agitation. Bonaparte surrendered himself.

Special to the Rome Daily.

ATLANTA, Jan. 11.—Conservatives and Democrats united on Bryant for Speaker. The Radicals were greatly frightened, and importuned Terry to interfere. Harris adjourned the House at 12, about half having qualified, to marshal forces against Bryant. Further Congressional interference sought.

The Georgia Senate convened yesterday. The galleries were crowded with both sexes. The desks of late Senators Adkins, and Ayer, were draped in mourning. The Hall was decorated with American flags. Provisional Governor Bullock, sorter convening the Legislature, and Gen. Meade's order of June, 1868, announcing the names of Senators' elect, were read, when members came forward to qualify.

Among whom were Aaron Alperio Bradley and Campbell, negroes. Campbell, negro, made a protest against qualifying of several white members as having held offices while engaged in the rebellion, and not yet relieved of disabilities by Congress. But amid applause from the galleries, all were sworn in.

About two of the members thus sworn in are considered as not being able to legally qualify. Benjamin Conley was elected Speaker of the House. The Governor's order were read; also the opinion of the Attorney General, as to the qualification of members. During the swearing in of members, Bryant ex-member and postmaster of Augusta, interrupted the proceedings of House, declaring the reading of the attorney General's opinion an outrage and the acts of Congress illegal and revolutionary. On being called to order by the Chair he refused, and was finally elected chairman himself. A committee of three was appointed to wait on Gen. Terry and obtain his views as to the legality of the proceedings went on in quiet.

About nine members in the House are considered disqualified. Both Houses adjourned to meet today.

On reassembling to-day a few members were sworn in and again adjourned to meet to-morrow at noon.

The Republicans hold a meeting to-night.

It is supposed that the Democrats and Conservative Republicans will have a majority in both Houses.

The Attorney General's opinion is that a citizen having ever held office, civil, military, or naval previous to the rebellion cannot take the oath, but if he held no office either State or national previous to the rebellion he can legally take the oath, no matter what may have been his conduct during the rebellion.

Why
Is it that Dr. Roback's Stomach Bitters increase in sale every year?

Because
They are the best combination ever made.

Why
Do the Druggists recommend Dr. Roback's Bitters to their customers?

Because
After years of experience and trial they have been proven to be a sure cure for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

Why
Is it that Physicians use and recommend Dr. Roback's Sugar-coated Blood Pills?

Because
They know the ingredients of which they are made.

Why
Are Dr. Roback's Blood Purifier and Blood Pills the best remedies taken together for the cure of all diseases of the blood?

Because
The Blood Purifier is the only article in the market which contains the celebrated costly Drugs imported expressly from Sweden for its manufacture, and the Pills contain the active principle of Podophyllum (Mandrake Root) and is a substitute for Mercury.

Why
Are Dr. C. W. Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills the three greatest remedies the world has ever known?

Because
After eleven years' experience and trial the sales have increased each and every year, and thousands of letters (unsolicited) of the remarkable cures they have performed bear witness. Read the letters in Local Column of cures by these medicines.

Valuable Property for Sale.

WILL be sold at private sale, on application, the Church property of the Calhoun Springs congregation, embracing 40 acres, with church building, near Middleton, Calhoun co. Ala. Said property will be divided into one-acre lots one acre on which are located the Springs being reserved from sale, so that no purchaser shall monopolize the use of the waters.

The Springs are Calhoun and Froston, and have for many years been resorted to by invalids during the summer season, and are regarded by physicians and by those who have made use of them as highly medicinal, especially in chronic diseases.

Also upon the tract, near to the water, is a large bed of iron ore, which has for several years been successfully worked, yielding a large per cent of iron, with water sufficient for steam power for iron works or foundry.

About one half of the tract is well timbered with long leaf pine, suitable for building purposes; the other half oak. Parties desirous of purchasing will apply to

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Seminal Weakness, or Seminal Wastage, Involuntary Seminal Emissions, Nervous Debility, Mental and Physical Impairment, Impediment to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Emphysema, and First, Second, and Third, Indigestion or sexual extravagance.

Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; and that a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publisher.

FOREIGN LITERATURE.

NEW VOLUME beginning January, 1870. NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

The Eclectic reprints all the best articles, historic, literary, and social, from the prominent English, French, and German periodicals. Its selections are carefully made from over fifty different works, and with many competitors in the field, it remains the oldest and most reliable exponent of foreign contemporary thought.

SPECIALITIES OF THE ECLECTIC.

Science.
It is believed that in this department the Eclectic is more comprehensive and complete than any other Magazine in the world not exclusively devoted to the subject.

Biography.
In this department will be found the life of every man who in any walk of life has laid hold on Fame.

Belles Lettres.
Polite Literature in all its branches is represented by the best selections which can be gleaned from a wide field.

Fiction.
In this department the best current literature of the times is found, comprising occasional Serials by the best contemporary novelists, but chiefly the short stories for which the English Magazines are deservedly celebrated.

General Literature.
This department, probably the most important of all, is represented by selections from the best Reviews, and contains the choicest current Essays upon Literary, Social, and Political questions.</ made my duty under the Law, to see that such settlements are made. The settlements of all Executors, Administrators and Guardians are now due for the past year 1869, and notice is hereby given, that all who fail to appear at my office, on or before the 1st day of May, 1870, and then and there file their accounts and vouchers for settle-

Valuable Property for Sale.

WILL be sold at private sale, on application, the Church property of the Chalchatta Springs congregation, embracing 40 acres, with church building, near Middleton, Calhoun Co. Ala. Said property will be divided into one acre lots one acre on which are located the Springs being reserved from sale, so that no purchaser shall monopolize the use of the springs. The property is situated on the Chalchatta River, and is well adapted for residence, and has for many years been resorted to by invalids during the summer season, and the regular log physicians and by those who have made use of them as highly medicinal, especially in chronic diseases.

Also upon the tract, near to the water, is a large bed of iron ore which has for several years been successfully worked, yielding a large per cent of iron, with water sufficient for steam power for Iron Works or Foundry.

About one half of the tract is well timbered with long leaf pine, suitable for building purposes; the other half oak.
Parties desirous of purchasing will apply to
JAMES MEHARG,
L. COCKER,

O. Well I Remember.

O, well I remember,
How sadly I tore
The first checkered apron
That ever I wore.

How I looked and how I felt,
All flooded with tears,
When my darling mother gave me
A box on the ears.

Then, as I stood, I saw her
To her dearest, her darling, her devil-some son!

O, well I remember
(They're fresh in my mind.)
How I looked and how I felt,
All buttoned behind;

How I played in the puddle,
And daubed them with dirt,—
How my grandmother shook me
Nigh out of my shirt.

But promised to buy me a nice sugar toy,
If I'd but remember to be a good boy.

O, well I remember
My advent in school—
How I sat on the dunce-block,
And felt like a fool.

How I pulled out the paper
From Emeline's curls
For which I was planted
On a seat with the girls!

'Twas punishment fraught with confusion
and pain,
But I should like to be put there again.

O, well I remember,
When older I'd grown,
I had to spread clover
On a seat with the gown;

And the finger of finger
Still points to the churn,
And the hated old grindstone
I dreamed to turn;

For I turned and I churned till as weak
And sweat till as wet as a water-soaked rat.

O, well I remember
The old mill mare,
That took me to meeting,
To the mill, to the fair;

I rode her to plow, and her sister harrow,
My little brother before,
Until from chafing
I could ride no more;

But oftentimes since I have heavily sigh'd
To think the "horse" that I daily must ride.

Negro Hugs.

On Tuesday last, a negro boy in the employ of Mr. Wilson, living near Blue Pond in Cherokee county, assaulted, and knocked down with a piece of iron, two young ladies, the daughters of Mr. Wilson. It appears that one of the young ladies told the boy to bring some wood in the house. The boy went out, as if for the purpose of getting the wood. He returned however, with the iron in his hand, and without saying a word, knocked the young lady down, inflicting severe wounds upon her head. Her sister hearing her screams, rushed into the room, when the brute struck her over the head and arms inflicting severe and dangerous wounds. It was evidently the intention of the negro to kill the two ladies, and as he continued his blows, after she was knocked to the floor, senseless. When he had fully vented his wrath, he left the premises. A large party of the friends of the young ladies assembled, and went in pursuit immediately, and tracked him through the snow to the mountains, where they found him with a rope, evidently to use for the purpose of stealing a horse, upon which to make his escape.
It was used, however, for another purpose, and the infuriated crowd could not be restrained from hanging him at once.
This brute has always been considered a mean and dangerous negro, and it is a matter of rejoicing in his neighborhood, that he has met his deserts. The young ladies are now in a critical condition. The skull of one is fractured, the head of the other has several severe wounds. W. H.
would not counsel mob law, but in all such cases as this we have nothing to depend upon but the law. The negro was administered. We learn further that Mr. Wilson, the father of the young ladies, who has been heretofore a strong Radical, says he has learned the folly of his way, and endorses fully the hanging of the negro.—Gadsden Times.

Appalling—Two Sons of Gen. Gid
Pillow Murdered.

We learned from Conductor Stephenson,
of the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, that on Sunday night last, two sons of Gen. Gid. Pillow, who had been living on their plantation near Lagrange, Alabama, were shot and killed by a party of disguised men. One of them was riddled with bullets. It is not positively sure that the other was killed, but next morning his horse was found with stains of blood on the saddle, and the young man had not been heard from.
This is indeed a terrible tragedy. Our informant could not give the cause, but we hope to have full information to-day.—
Huntsville Independent.

The Pillow Tragedy.

We learn that the two Pillows, killed near Lagrange, were nephews, not sons, of General Pillow. Our informant stated that they were killed for cruel and persistent maltreatment of the wife of one of them. They had been wanted to cease the abuse of the women, which enraged the husband, and his treatment of her became more violent, beating her over the head with a pistol, the brother being approving. The disgraced men came upon them at night, killing one in his bed, and the other was found next morning in a sink-hole, his body riddled with bullets and a rope around his neck. If we have the true cause for the instance of lynch law, it places the Pillows as monstrous fiends, and deserving punishment adequate to the crimes; but we do not wish to condemn the mob, who were by which they were killed, but we trust a case like this will have been so met with stern justice from any jury.—

Huntsville Independent.

We publish below the proceedings of a meeting of the Stock Holders of the Tenn. & Coosa R. R. Co. It will be seen that the Company refuses to ratify, and disavows from the agreement, entered into by the committee appointed to confer with John Everett, in relation to the construction of the road. We hope immediate steps will be taken to enable parties who are willing and anxious to build this road, to proceed with the work. It is useless to point out the advantages to accrue to the country from its completion.
Every North Alabamian, who visits the Capitol of his State must pay tribute to the roads now run to other States. Hurry up the work, Messrs. Directors, other roads will cut you off.—Gadsden Times.

OFFICE OF THE TENN. & COOSA RAIL
ROAD COMPANY.

GUNTERSVILLE, ALA., Jan. 3, 1870.

This day being appointed by law for the election of a President and eight Directors for the Tennessee & Coosa Railroad Company, a meeting of the Stockholders of said company was held at the office of said company in Gunter'sville, and on motion of Wm. H. Wiggs, Louis Wyeth was elected President.

Mr. Wyeth submitted his report as President of this company which was ordered to be filed.

The Stockholders proceeded to elect a President and eight Directors, and after balloting, it was found that G. H. Lewis Wyeth had received a majority of the votes was declared duly elected President of the Tennessee & Coosa Railroad Company for the term prescribed by law.

Resolved, That this meeting refuse to ratify and confirm said alleged contract or agreement—but dissent from and disapprove the same.

In testimony whereof the undersigned stockholders in said Road, hereunto set our hand, this 3d day of January 1870.

Is the Day Dawning?

From the Montgomery Advertiser.]

Mr. Hittman, the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State of New York, in assuming the Chair, after his election to that high and honorable position, made a speech which has reached our weary ears, long listening for such a sound from the Great North, and which has caused our blood to course through our veins as if we had heard the note of some victorious trumpet. The Democratic want Peace and Freedom and Republican Institutions; but Peace without Liberty, Freedom without Justice, and Justice without Liberty, are no good things.
Let them submit to the destruction of all the guarantees which our forefathers established for our security against oppression, and that we shall become the more subjects of a government of force, is only to be despised and hated. That the Radical Party is to-day so far as its leaders are concerned, a traitorous organization; that it has established an Oligarchi-cal Government at Washington in place of that of the old Union; that it is attending to the rights of usurpation, for which those who have thus conspired against the Liberties and Laws of the Nation should suffer death can no longer be questioned. What Mr. Hittman says in his speech to the New York House of Representatives show by the faintest implication that he thinks so.
For, if a set of men in Congress have undertaken to usurp the Judiciary Powers on the one hand, and the just Authority, both civil and military, of the Executive Department on the other; if they have swept away the rights of the States and thus broken the defenses existing in our system of government against imperial Tyranny; if they have been guilty of crimes which necessarily fix upon them the character of conspirators, their lives would be but a poor forfeit in expiation of their criminal conduct.
But of all these things, the Radical leaders have unquestionably been guilty; and so Mr. Hittman says and believes.
We are glad to see the prompt and earnest response of the Legislature of New York to the Speaker's distinct and deliberate language, and the General Assembly at once rescinded the Act of Ratification of the XVth Amendment fraudulently passed last winter, and now let

Congress count New York as having ratified this Amendment. If it does, it is certain that Radical Revolution has already gone much too far. The Cockatrice ought to have been crushed in its egg. Any one can understand the extremely perilous condition of the country who comprehends the fact that there is a desperate political combination of profligate politicians, ambitious soldiers, and unscrupulous capitalists, who are endeavoring to overthrow the Republic, which knows that it cannot survive
to hold Power except for a brief period by the consent of a majority of the people, but who are, nevertheless, resolved to maintain it against their fair and free consent. They have already gone so far as to declare to the Democracy of the North and West (now a majority of the people) that no Southern State shall be organized in sympathy with their political principles and party policy, and that they will not only control the acts, but the opinions of the citizens of these States in maintenance of their own Oligarchical domination. They have already in order to secure the authority they coveted as being necessary to their purposes, deliberately destroyed the coordinate equality in the distribution of the Executive, Legislative, and Judicial Powers between the Departments of the Federal Government. They have already swayed from the States many of their most important prerogatives, and are contemplating their entire subversion as separate and independent Communities.
They have already, in aid of their present rule and future internal usurpation, interjected without legal warrant, hundreds of thousands of Alien voters into our National System, and are now proposing to interfere by means of the XVth Amendment to be proclaimed as having been ratified by whatever means of fraud and coercion, thousands of their voters into the National System throughout Northern and Western States.
Should they fear to lose power, notwithstanding these wrongs, and wicked appliances, they then contemplate the atrocious project of grasping the ballot boxes of the people in every State, County and City from one end of the Country to the other, and of carrying on the elections with their own depraved tools and agents, in the presence of cannon and bayonets. Mr. Hittman evidently thinks, and so we hope does the New York Legislature, that such a scheme as this must be resisted and put down, if necessary by the physical force of these people. Let the people then enter at once upon the work demanded of them in the present emergency with a spirit equal to the stern necessities of the occasion. Let them resolve to subvert the conspirators and to extinguish their conspiracy, to re-establish the equilibrium of the government, to restore to the States the liberties and franchises of which they have been despoiled, and finally to submit the usurper to their selves before the proper Tribunals for judgment and punishment.

Revolution has been already permitted to reach the dangerous point it has attained in its progress towards Despotism, because the Northern people are too deceived by the professions and promises of the Radical leaders. They can now no longer set up an excuse for non-resistance. Their eyes are now open to the facts of the case, and they can appreciate inevitable results as though they were visible objects exposed in the light of day. For a long time we hoped the Supreme Court would interpose its mighty arm to save. At one moment we hoped that President Grant would demand his rightful Constitutional powers from Congress, and make an issue from which a healthful and powerful reaction might follow. We also earnestly hoped, and even expected

Latest News.

FROM FRANCE.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—Five thousand workmen from the Foudrerie passed the Boulevard to the funeral of the late M. de la Roche, who died of cholera. The procession Rochefort's presence at the funeral caused a great demonstration, and frequent shouts of "vive la République" occurred at the cemetery. While Rochefort came down the Champs Elysees with a great crowd, Rochefort, claiming the privilege of a deputy, was allowed to pass to the Chamber, where he arrived pale and much excited. The crowd was finally dispersed without resistance to the police or troops, though some arrests were made.

FROM PARIS.

PARIS, Jan. 13.—The police and magistrates were stoned. Intense excitement exists, but no serious trouble. A "hundred thousand" soldiers are in Paris and the police force is largely increased. The Marseillaise appeared as usual to-day. None very violent. Rochefort's leader says "the cry of yesterday was for justice; to-morrow the cry may come for vengeance."

FROM KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 13.—A terrible storm struck Cave City, Kentucky, last night. Eight persons were instantly killed and eighteen hurt.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 18.—Heavy storm here last night.

FROM OHIO.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 18.—An unusually heavy storm last night. The trains delayed. Much damage throughout the State.

FROM PARIS.

PARIS, Jan. 18.—Yesterday's Marseillaise publishes the following: "In Madrid a public meeting of twenty thousand republicans, by unanimous vote, congratulate the republicans of Paris and Deputy Rochefort, the devoted champion of democracy." In the Corps de debate on Rochefort opened to-day. The Chamber was crowded: all deputies and a full ministry present. The left center proposed the abandonment of the prosecution. If Oliver desired the vote otherwise the ministry would resign. Rochefort made a violent speech, declaring the ministry determined to get rid of him. A crowd is collecting, and a large police force on hand. Five o'clock—large crowds are collecting. The guards have been doubled. Half five—crowd not allowed to approach the chamber. Six o'clock—the Chamber arraigned Rochefort; vote, 226 to 34. The announcement caused a great demonstration in favor of Rochefort among people in place de la Concorde. Six—thirty—another Rochefort demonstration in Boulevard Mont Matre. Eight—crowds still collecting—shouting for Rochefort.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

MONTGOMERY, Jan. 18.—The Senate passed the bill regarding Mobile city government, but is so amended as to leave the appointments with the Governor and Senate. The committee reported that the Selma, Marion and Memphis road, as far as it was good and was ample security for the sixteen thousand dollars now in the hands of the State. A bill was also introduced and referred, to allow the sexes to cohabit, provided they are liberal in their conduct and are willing to occupy the relationship of man and wife. A fine assortment of Ladies Gold Watches and Chains, just received by Joseph E. YEAL.

FROM KENTUCKY.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 18.—Every house between Glasgow and this city was prostrated by the storm. Twenty-five lives were lost. A fine assortment of Ladies Gold Watches and Chains, just received by Joseph E. YEAL.

ROBACK'S

Roback's Stomach Bitters, unlike all other Bitters in the market, possess intrinsic merit. Most Bitters, so called, are merely medicinal stuff, sold as cathartics. Dr. Roback's Bitters are not a beverage in any sense of the word, but contain the most expensive drugs known to science for the radical cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia, and for all cases where a tonic and stimulant are required. They restore the vital forces in a remarkable degree, and give tone to the system.

STOMACH

It is now eleven years since Dr. Roback's celebrated Swedish physician, from Stockholm, Sweden, came to this country and introduced the Scandinavian Blood Purifier, since which time thousands have been cured, by its use, of Scrofula and other blood diseases. It contains, besides the Iodide of Potassa and Syrup of Sillington, drugs imported from Sweden for its express manufacture, unknown and not kept by apothecaries in this country. A single trial will convince the most skeptical of its wonderful value.

BITTERS

Dr. Roback's Blood Pills are unsurpassed by any Pill manufactured for a similar purpose. One trial invariably establishes them as favorites with all who use them. The reasons why Dr. Roback's Blood Pills should be kept in every family are: Because they can be employed in all cases where a "family physic" is required, and are perfectly safe in their administration at all times; Because they are made both with and without sugar-coating, thus adapting them to the use of everybody; Because they can be purchased at any drug store at the extremely low price of twenty-five cents per box.
